

BEST OF THE BEST

Technician's Training & Competition

June 12, 2013 (8am-5pm)
Thomas Bus Sales / Des Moines, Iowa

This is a program to help recognize school bus technicians/mechanics for the important role they play in safe school transportation. This training & competition will include training, a written knowledge exam plus a "hands on" competition to determine the "best of the best" in Iowa. The winner of this competition will then proceed on to the national competition to be held this fall. The national winner will receive an award in October at the NAPT conference in Grand Rapids, MI.

Completion of this form is a commitment of participation. You should consult your administration, making them aware of your interest in this project and seek their complete support. In the event you win, it will be necessary to have several days off of work to compete at the national level. It's necessary to have this commitment of administrative support and arrangements for time off in place prior to registering for this competition.

This form must be returned no later than May 15, 2013!

ELIGIBILITY: You are eligible if you have one full year of employment by a contractor or school district in the school bus mechanic field and are based in the State of Iowa; or if employed less than one year by a contractor or school district, you hold an ASE school bus technician certification and are based in Iowa. You are responsible for your own expenses to attend this competition. All expenses are paid for the person advancing to the national competition, and in the event you win there, all expenses are also paid to NAPT to receive the award.
