Recommendation: It is recommended that the State Board approve University of Wisconsin-Stout online educator preparation program for registration with the Iowa College Student Aid Commission.

Background: U.S. Department of Education regulations (34 CFR § 600.9) require an institution that offers online courses and programs, including educator preparation programs, to be registered with each state in which students of the programs reside, if the state requires that the institution be registered in that state. Iowa Code chapter 261B, as modified effective July 1, 2009, requires an institution that maintains or conducts a course of instruction in Iowa, including through distance education, to register with the Iowa College Student Aid Commission.

Comments: All requirements were communicated to the University of Wisconsin-Stout. The University of Wisconsin-Stout provided scanned copies of documents and links to websites (University of Wisconsin-Stout as well as accrediting agencies) for verification of evidence. Iowa Department of Education (Department) staff reviewed all evidence and compared to requirements, with special attention to accreditation status of the institution and the preparation program. Evidence proved compliance with all requirements. After this review, Department staff recommends the State Board approve the University of Wisconsin-Stout for enrollment.
