The school district boundaries shown on this map were developed through a process that involved compiling data from locally derived GIS sources. The Iowa Department of Education School District Boundary Verification 2016 - 2017 provides a comprehensive view of district boundaries, including the BCLUW and other school district boundaries, as well as related geographic features such as townships, sections, and counties.