Iowa Reading Research Center:  http://www.iowareadingresearch.org/
The work of the IRRC focuses on statewide instructional strategies and interventions, student reading assessments, a statewide data system, community partnerships, family resources, professional development for educators, and an intensive summer reading program.

EDPubs:  http://www.edpubs.gov/
USDE’s publication center has a multitude of free materials and resources that can assist districts and schools in encouraging and maximizing parent involvement.

What Works Clearinghouse (WWC):  http://www.w-w-c.org/
As part of the USDE’s Institute of Education Sciences, the WWC has been established to put solid evidence from high-quality scientific research into the hands of educators so they may make better choices about programs and practices.

National Center for Family & Community Connections with Schools:
http://www.sedl.org/connections/
The Center links people with research-based information and resources that they can use to effectively connect schools, families, and communities. It emphasizes connections that directly impact student achievement in reading and mathematics, as well as connections that contribute to the students' overall success in school and in life.
