PART 463 SUBPART G - IELCE PROGRAM

WIA

- There was no IELCE in WIA. Funding for EL/Civics program to states was authorized through annual appropriations.
- EL/Civics focus on learning English while also learning about civil rights, civic participation and responsibility, and obtaining citizenship. There was no explicit focus on workforce development.
- WIA was silent on specific service subpopulation as it pertains to individuals needing English language instruction.

WIOA

- WIOA authorizes and codifies the Integrated English Literacy and Civics Education program (IELCE).
- In the IELCE Program, literacy, English language acquisition, and civics education must be delivered in combination with integrated education and training activities.
- Clarifies that program services are also available to “professionals with degrees and credentials in their native countries.”
IELCE PROGRAM

- CONTAINS SIX RULES
  - 463.70
  - 463.71
  - 463.72

LITERACY

LITERACY.—The term ‘‘literacy’’ means an individual’s ability to read, write, and speak in English, compute, and solve problems, at levels of proficiency necessary to function on the job, in the family of the individual, and in society.
ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACQUISITION

(6) ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACQUISITION PROGRAM.—The term “‘English language acquisition program’” means a program of instruction—

(A) designed to help eligible individuals who are English language learners achieve competence in reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension of the English language; and

(B) that leads to— (i)(I) attainment of a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent; and (II) transition to postsecondary education and training; or (ii) employment.
CIVICS EDUCATION

Instruction on the rights and responsibilities of citizenship and civic participation
INTEGRATED EDUCATION AND TRAINING

3 components

- Adult education and literacy activity
- Workforce preparation activities
- Workforce training
Must meet all of the requirements in subpart D

Provided in combination with IET

Must meet all of the requirements in subpart D
(2) ADULT EDUCATION AND LITERACY ACTIVITIES.—The term "adult education and literacy activities" means programs, activities, and services that include adult education, literacy, workplace adult education and literacy activities, family literacy activities, English language acquisition activities, integrated English literacy and civics education, workforce preparation activities, or integrated education and training activities.
WORKFORCE PREPARATION ACTIVITIES

Proposed §463.34 restated statutory language in WIOA that establishes workforce preparation activities as activities, programs, or services that are designed to help an individual acquire a combination of basic academic skills, critical thinking, digital literacy, and self-management skills.
WORKFORCE TRAINING

(i) Occupational skills training, including training for nontraditional employment
(ii) On the job training
(iii) Incumbent worker training in accordance with subsection 134(d)(4)
(iv) programs that combine workplace training with related instruction, which may include cooperative education programs
(v) Training programs operated by the private sector
(vi) skill upgrading and retraining
(vii) entrepreneurial training
(viii) transitional jobs in accordance with subsection 134(d)(5)
(ix) job readiness training provided in combination with services described in any of clauses (i) through (viii)
(x) adult education and literacy activities, including activities of English Language acquisition and integrated education and training programs, provided concurrently or in combination with services described in any of clauses (i) through (vii), and
(xi) customized training conducted with a commitment by an employer or group of employers to employ an individual upon successful completion of the training.
IET (463.35)

A service approach that provides adult education and literacy activities concurrently and contextually with workforce activities and workforce training for a specific occupation or occupational cluster for the purpose of educational and career advancement.
IELCE 463.33

A service provided to English language learners who are adults, including professionals with degrees and credentials in their native countries, that enables such adults to achieve competency in the English language and acquire the basic and more advanced skills needed to function effectively as parents, workers, and citizens in the United States. Such services shall include instruction in literacy and English language acquisition and instruction on the rights and responsibilities of citizenship and civic participation, and may include workforce training.
ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACQUISITION

(6) ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACQUISITION PROGRAM.—The term “‘English language acquisition program’” means a program of instruction—

(A) designed to help eligible individuals who are English language learners achieve competence in reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension of the English language; and

(B) that leads to— (i)(I) attainment of a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent; and (II) transition to postsecondary education and training; or (ii) employment
KEY CONCEPTS

- Participants who do not have credential attainment or workforce related goals can still participate.
- IELCE services includes three distinct activities: literacy, ELA and civics education.
- IELCE program includes six activities: literacy, ELA, civics education, IET (3 activities).
We believe that it is clear that English language acquisition programs should not discourage or exclude eligible individuals from participation, regardless of whether they are seeking a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent, or transition to postsecondary education or training or employment.
ACRONYM FEVER

- ELL= English language learner (a type of eligible individual defined in WIOA)
- ELA= English language acquisition (a particular adult education and literacy activity under WIOA)
- ESL= English as a Second Language (a set of educational functioning levels used for ELLs)
